The World Youth Day group thank all those who made their trip to Madrid at the invitation of Pope Benedict possible.
Thanks to their families and friends and to all who supported them in their fundraising efforts during the year.
The experience of World Youth Day is hard to describe, but the picture of the Worldwide Church is something that they will carry with them always.

Thank you!

Thought for the Week

To climb steep hills requires a slow pace at first.

Twenty two young men began their studies for the priesthood recently in Maynooth.

Our Diocese of Kildare & Leighlin has six students in formation.

There are ninety men preparing for the priesthood in Ireland at the Moment.

We keep them in our prayers at this time.
