Jesus, Your heart is big and Though you wanted to get away from the crowd to rest, your heart expanded to include them when they showed up.

Expand my heart too so that I can respond with love and compassion to those in great need.

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in you.

Thought for the Week

A small step in the midst of great limitations can be more pleasing to God than a life which appears in order but moves through the day without confronting great difficulties.

Lord, with our small minds, we often do not understand that you are a God of abundance, waiting to give us good things.

Often we act out of fear of scarcity and do not rely on your promise of plenty to those who trust in you.

Help us to rely on you and to trust your goodness in the concrete situations of our life.

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in you.

A compassionate Heart

Scripture: Jesus was greatly distressed, and with a profound sigh he said, "Where have you put Lazarus?" They said, "Lord, Come and see." Jesus wept.
(John 11: 33-34)

Meditation: We all know what it's like to share in another's experience. At a wedding reception, we feel the joy of the happy couple. At the bed of a sick friend, we feel the anxiety and fear they experience.
Compassion is one of the greatest gifts we have; it binds us together in a caring community. Jesus knew compassion. He has compassion for you and for me...

Prayer: Lord Jesus, because you are one of us you know the human heart with all its joys and fears, its hopes and its disappointments.
You understand the mysterious ways of our own hearts, Help us in all the ups and downs of life, to be aware of your compassion and to find strength in your presence.

Kildare Branch of the Alzheimer Society of Ireland at all Masses on Saturday and Sunday the 27th and 28th August. Your generosity will be greatly appreciated.
