A Helping Hand

Come to me all you who labour and are overburdened, and I will give you rest. (Mt 11.28)

A burden shared is a burden lightened. Jesus opens his arms to welcome all those who are exhausted by the pace of life, or wearied by the weight of their responsibilities, or tortured by an abiding feeling of inadequacy. He reaches out in friendship to those who are discouraged by the failures of the past or worried about the uncertainties of the future. And he offers the consolation of his companionship to those who labour under a heavy burden of illness, or endure the hidden pain of loneliness, or suffer the cruel humiliation of rejection.

Prayer—stay with me Jesus, when I stumble in the darkness. Stay with me when I find it hard to keep going. Hold me when I am tempted to lose heart.

Prayerful good wishes to all of our young people sitting Junior and Leaving Certificate exams at this time. We remember all who will guide them into the future.

Prayer for students taking exams

Loving God, be with me now, as I prepare for my exams. Thank you for the many talents and gifts you have given me, and for the opportunity of education.
Calm my nerves and anxiety, help me to remember all that I have studied, to express it clearly and to answer the questions the very best that I can.
Holy Spirit, sit with me in my exam and always, in Jesus' name, Amen.

Thought for the Week....

In times of Sorrow a true friend is a Minister of comfort, sent by God, who will seek you out in the darkness to share your grief, and will not leave you until they have lit a candle of hope in your heart....
