Vocations Sunday

The Diocese of Kildare & Leighlin has seven students for the priesthood, studying in Maynooth and in Rome. There are approximately one hundred students for the priesthood in Ireland today.
On this Vocations Sunday we remember all who encourage Vocations to the priesthood as we build a Church and a parish where the gifts of all are welcomed and placed at the service of others.

Fr. Liam Lawton is offering a workshop to present the new Mass settings on Wednesday, 25th May in Clane Parish Church at 8pm. Cost per

Serenity Prayer

God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, the courage to change the things I can,
the wisdom to know the difference, living one day at a time, enjoying one moment at a time, accepting hardship as the pathway to peace, taking as He did, this sinful world as it is, not as I would have it, Trusting that He will make all things right if I surrender to His will, that I may be reasonably happy in this life, and supremely happy with Him forever in the next.

A very warm welcome to all the boys and girls receiving their First Holy Communion in Clane this weekend, to their families, and their teachers.
Enjoy this very special day.

O great St Joseph of Cupertino, Who by your prayers, obtained from God that you should be asked at your examination the only proposition you knew, obtain for me that I may succeed like you in the examination for which I am preparing.

Our exam book is now open in the Parish Church. Please include the names of anyone who is sitting exams this year, and we will remember them at all Masses in the parish.

Thought for the Week

Love; if you give it away, it comes right back to you. (Luke 6:38)
