Life's Treasures

Deep down, what do we really value in life; where does our treasure lie?

Wealth, possessions, status,
prestige, health, family, home, friends and Relationships, our faith?

Today's Gospel asks us to look at how attached we really are to our possessions.

Is it a healthy attachment, or does what we own
dominate our lives?

Food for thought.....

Prayer for our teenagers

Though it saddens us to let them go, we know our young must leave the nesting safety of our home.

Lord, please protect our children as they spread their wings tonight to socialise, laugh and play.

Keep them safe from harm. Give them your wisdom and understanding and the gift of courage and right judgement.

Remembering Our Dead

We remember all who have died; though time has passed, it has been shadowed by your absence.

Though our lives continue on, we still remember your face, voice, laughter and presence in our home.

We light this candle as an enduring sign of your presence in our memory and in our hearts.

We pray that the angels have led you to the outstretched arms of your loving father in Heaven.

As this light shines so too your memory dispels the darkness of absence.

Until we meet again, be happy in your just reward.
