"You were within but I outside"

This is Augustine in Book Ten of the Confessions. It captures a daily struggle for roots. So many pulls keep me scattered on the surface and I can begin to resent everything.

But this need not be.

There is an art of keeping in touch with depth and with God. It involves simply pausing to remember (in Italian (ricordare means literally "give back to the heart"). Wisdom needs protection in the bustle of each day.

Thought for the Week

Do not water down your faith in Jesus Christ.

We dilute fruit drinks, orange and apple juice. Do not drink a diluted form of Faith. Faith Is whole and entire, not something that you water down.

Dear Fr Paul

Thank you most sincerely for the very generous collection of 1,200 Euro.

Please convey our heartfelt thanks to all your parishioners and a big "thank you" to yourself for making the weekend so successful.

We are indeed indebted to the diocese of Kildare and Leighlin for the wonderful number of Viatores Christi lay missionaries that it has sent out to far away places in the last sixty years. They helped to further God's plan for this world in poverty-stricken areas.

Please God, grant that He may continue raise up more lay missionaries to answer the call as the task is far from over

We will remember you our benefactors in our prayers.

May God continue to bless your ministry and shower His blessings on your lovely parish.

Yours sincerely

Mary Winters, Viatores Christi
