The Deer's Cry
St Patrick's Breastplate

I arise today through the strength of heaven

Light of sun, radiance of moon Splendor of fire, speed of lightning Swiftness of wind, depth of the sea Stability of earth, firmness of rock

I arise today through God's strength to pilot me

God's eye to look before me God's wisdom to guide me God's way to lie before me God's shield to protect me
From all who shall wish me ill

Afar and a-near

Alone and in a multitude

Against every cruel, merciless power That may oppose my body and soul

Christ with me, Christ before me Christ behind me, Christ in me Christ beneath me, Christ above me Christ on my right, Christ on my left

Christ when I lie down, Christ when I sit down Christ when I arise,
Christ to shield me

Christ in the heart of everyone who thinks of me

Christ in the mouth of everyone who speaks of me

I arise today

We wish them every happiness as they begin their married life.

A tree is known by its fruit;
a man by his deeds.

A good deed is never lost;
he who sows courtesy reaps friendship, and he who plants kindness gathers love.

Heritage Week

Under the National Heritage Week Programme, an illustrated talk will be given in the Abbey Community Centre, commencing at 7.30 sharp, on Thursday next 24th August, concerning "The Tree Beatified Individuals of Clane and Rathcoffey." All welcome.

Silence

Sometimes too, silence can be helpful, especially when we cannot find words in response to the questions of those who suffer. A lack of words, however, can be made up for by the compassion of a person who stays at our side, who loves us and who holds out a hand. It is not true that silence is an act of surrender; on the contrary, it is a moment of strength and love. Silence too belongs to our language of consolation, because it becomes a concrete way of sharing in the suffering of a brother or sister.
