It is especially when we are in difficulties that our prayer life becomes a source of strength and peace for us. In every crisis we face, Jesus is bidding us come across the troubled waters to him. Through each event of our lives, our God is shaping us for a future of happiness.

Lord, it is so hard for us to recognise you in the difficult times in our lives. Yet you are always there in the midst of them, ready to reach out your hands to hold and save us. Help us to grow in trust of you.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in you.
