St Brigid & St Blaise

We warmly welcome the arrival of springtime on St Brigid's Day 1st February. The legend of St Brigid is one of hospitality, creativity and Christian charity. The home made St Brigid's Crosses are a special reminder of God's presence with us

St Blaise, Bishop and Martyr from Armenia is Patron Saint of all who suffer from illness of the throat.

We value our health of mind and body each day.

If time does anything, it deepens our grief. The longer we live, the more fully we become aware of who she was for us and the more intimately we experience what her love meant for us. Real deep love is, as you know, very unobtrusive, seemingly easy and obvious that we take it for granted. Therefore it is often only in retrospect—or better, in memory—that we fully realise its power and depth.

St Dominic Savio,
Help me to follow your example in loving Jesus and Mary.

Strengthen my weaknesses Help me to fight on in times of Temptation, and when I feel afraid Help me to think the right things,
To say the right things,
To do the right things

So that I may be a help to my friends and all others around me Following your example.

May I rather die than sin grievously.
Speak to Jesus and Mary for me
So that one day, I may come safely home to heaven. Amen
