November 1st—All Saints Day

Sunday next 1st November is All Saints Day. November is a special time to remember our loved ones who have died. Due to Covid 19 there will be no large gatherings at the Abbey cemetery and Mainham cemetery.
Fr Paul O'Boyle will conduct a simple blessing ceremony in both cemeteries.
On Sunday 1st at the 11.30am Mass in Clane available on our web-camera Fr Paul will call out the names of all who have died in our Parish during the past year and named candles will be available for those families to take home from the church to be brought to your home or to the cemetery.

Clocks go back one hour this Saturday night as winter time begins

Visit your church

We encourage people to visit our two beautiful churches in Clane and Rathcoffey during this lockdown period.
They are open each day as places of reflection, quiet prayer and support.

Our parish lotto continues during this lockdown period. Call and collect service for tickets to be collected or left at the parish office.

"I walked the road to sorrow—a road so dark with care, so lonely, I was certain that no one else was there.
But suddenly around me were beams of light, stretched wide; and then I saw that someone was walking by my side.
And when I turned to notice this road which I had trod, I saw two sets of footprints - My own...and those of God."

Best wishes to all of our local schools at this mid-term break time.
We appreciate the many efforts to keep them safe for all.
