Our Christen hope

It is inevitable that we should be sad when those we love depart from us by dying. Although we know they are not leaving us forever, that they have but gone a little ahead of us, that we who remain will follow them, nevertheless our nature shrinks from death, and when it takes a loved one we are filled with sorrow simply because of our love for that person. That is why the Apostle did not tell us that we should not be saddened, but that we should not be saddened in the same way as those who have no hope.

First Confession/First Communion

Parents of children who wish to have them receive the sacraments of first confession and first communion have been contacted through the schools to bring your son/daughter to either Clane or Rathcoffey Church on Saturday December 5th 2020 to register them and for them to receive their first confession A welcome to all.

Invitation from Bishop Denis to an Advent Liturgy of Hope

People across the diocese are warmly invited to join with Bishop Denis for a service of prayer to begin the Advent journey together in a spirit of hope. It will be streamed live from Carlow Cathedral, via iCatholic.ie, at 7:30pm on the First Sunday of Advent, November 29. In these darkening days of winter may this time of music, scripture, inspiration and prayer help people to draw once more on the hope that comes to us through our faith in Jesus, a hope that brings the light of Christ into our lives.

Thought for the Week

There can be love without friendship but friendship without love is impossible.
