Prisoners Sunday

Parish remembrance tree

People are invited to write the name of a loved one on a tag and place it on our parish remembrance tree in Clane Church.

Fr. Paul led special prayers last Sunday at the Abbey and Mainham cemeteries remembering all who died during the past year. We appreciate the excellent and dedicated work of both our cemetery committees in their maintenance work throughout the year.

We hold their memory dear. May they rest in peace. Amen

In Christianity, a "saint", by definition, is someone who is believed to have attained eternal life. I like to think that every one of us has known quite a few saints personally in our lifetime. So who were they?

They were the people who did the "ordinary things extraordinarily well": the carers;
 those who loved deeply and with a prodigal heart.
 Theirs was the kind word, the thoughtful gesture;
 their lives poured out in the service of others.

They were people who relished life;
 radiated joy; made us laugh, and laughed themselves till their sides hurt. People who preferred to build up rather than tear down; aware of their own weaknesses, they accompanied us in our joys and our sorrows. And when we spoke, they listened. Really listened. We were comfortable with them because they were "real"
 with us.

They were people who loved life and loved the world; who could enjoy a sun-holiday in Mallorca as much as a pilgrimage to Lourdes.
 Both locations spoke to them of God and the goodness of his creation.

It's often these individuals who have had a greater impact on our faith lives than the more well-known "official" saints. And we thought: if the God in whom these people professed belief is anything like the people themselves, then he's certainly someone worth getting to know. These saints were our parents; grandparents; neighbours;
 colleagues; friends; acquaintances.

Sainthood doesn't require a personality change. These people were simply the best version of themselves that they could possibly be. Sanctity is not for the few but for the many.

 Daily Prayer companion for busy people!

Bishop Denis Nulty has asked Fr Paul O'Boyle to be administrator of Staplestown and Cooleragh Parish following the death of Fr Jimmy Doyle recently.
 May the Lord comfort Fr Jimmy's sister and family at this time.

Come to us Lord

Come to us, O God, when the night surrounds us!
 Come to us in the night of disappointment,
 Come to us in the night of guilt,
 Come to us in the night of fear,
 Come to us in the night of hatred, Come to us in the night of loneliness,
 Come to me in my night
 and stay with me, my God,
 in every night. Amen.

A prayer called kindness after used by Fr Jimmy Doyle RIP

It was only a sunny smile
 And little it cost in the giving.
 But it scattered the night like the morning light
 And made the day worth living.

It was only a friendly word,
 A word that was lightly spoken.
 Yet not in vain, for it chilled the pain
 Of a heart that was nearly broken.

It was only a helping hand
 And it seemed of little availing.
 But its clasps were warm
 And it saved from harm
 A brother whose strength was failing.
