A prayer for Summer time

Lord, sometimes you're like a butterfly
Fluttering here, there, and everywhere,
Looking for a flower to settle on.
You're like that with me, I know.
You want to rest on me,
And share your presence,
But you cannot
Because I'm always swaying around,
Always so preoccupied with myself,
And with life's busy pace,
Its tensions and stresses.
Yet you always wait for me to be still.
You keep fluttering around,
Waiting your chance to rest on me.
You never give up on me, Lord.
Lord, teach me to stop swaying around
With every breeze.
Teach me to be still
So you can always rest on me.

Amen

Thought for the Week
Jesus reminds us to be careful to judge others more harshly than we judge ourselves, try to be free of prejudice for this can cloud our judgement.
