Day for Life

Clane Parish Ark and Labyrinth II.

A central feature our A.R.K. (Act of Restorative Kindness) is our Grass Chartres Labyrinth. The Labyrinth can be symbolic of many things but the one most usually associated with it is that of your journey in life with it's twists and turns as you make your way to your centre. The Centre of the Labyrinth perhaps represents the ultimate goal attained following the prayerful, reflective journey, a sacred place of merging of heaven and earth where a sense of balance and equilibrium is restored.

We have been thinking what feature we might place at the centre to best mark its sacredness and have settled on planting a native Irish Oak, a symbol of truth, courage and wisdom, all qualities we might aspire to have at our centre.

The Tree Planting took place on Sunday the 3rd October a date also coinciding with the conclusion of The Season of Creation - what better gesture to celebrate creation than the planting of a tree.

The Cardinal Virtues

Prudence, Fortitude
Justice, Temperance

Christ asks for a home in your soul, where he can be at rest with you, where he can talk easily to you, where you and he, alone together, can laugh and be silent and be delighted with one another.

As my prayer became ever more contemplative and interior, I found
I had less and less to say.
Finally I became completely silent.
I became what is, if possible,
an even greater contrast to speaking:
I became a listener.
At first I thought that prayer was speaking, but then I learned that prayer is not merely silence, but listening.
It is like this then: prayer means not hearing oneself speak. Prayer means becoming silent and being silent and waiting, until the person praying hears God.
(Soren Kierkegaard)

Have mercy on me

My Lord and my God,
with Bartimaeus I cry out to you:
Have mercy on me!
Have mercy on my darkness,
and be my Light.
Have mercy on my weakness,
and be my Strength.
Have mercy on my loneliness,
and be my Friend.
Have mercy on my longing,
and be Truth to me.
Call me to you - and I will come!
Amen

Thought for the Week

“Evangelisation through developing deep friendships” was the way the late Fr Con Cronin lived his life and ministry. Fr. can died following a freak accident in Cork during the summer as did the driver of the bus Mark Wills, may they both now Rest in Peace. Amen.
