The Way

The Way to Jerusalem is symbolic of the Christian journey, and indeed the early Christian movement was known as 'They Way'.

This is a term sometimes used today to refer to the famous pilgrimage route to Santiago de Compostela in the north of Spain.
Anyone who has walked the Camino knows what a deeply spiritual experience it can be.

Yes, there are blisters, aches and pains, stifling heat and not-so-comfortable sleeping conditions, but it is also a road of discovery, friendship, prayer, hospitality and solidarity.

There is something very transformative about walking day after day.

The body becomes attuned to the earth.
You engage on a different level with nature, villages, communities, changing landscapes, new faces—and ultimately with Christ who dwells within. Few people are the same after this experience. For the disciples, this will certainly be true of their journey.

Wednesday 29th June SS Peter and Paul, Apostles Friday 1st July St. Oliver Plunkett of Armagh

I will be away from the Parish for 5 months from July 1st to December 1st 2022 on sabbatical study time approved by Bishop Denis. I will be spending that time in a Jesuit Parish in Sydney Australia and also during some studies in Jerusalem.

Bishop Denis has arranged that Fr. Laurentin and Fr. Octavian two Romanian Priests will provide cover and support to Fr. Denis when I am away.
Fr. John in Cooleragh, Fr. George and Fr. Adrieno in Kilcock will also be supporting the Parish when I am away.

I will be back to the Parish for December 1st.

Best Wishes, Fr. Paul O'Boyle

Synod News
You may have seen coverage of the national synodal gathering last weekend. It was attended by Bishop Denis and the three diocesan delegates. While we await the publication of the Irish Synod Synthesis, people in Kildare and Leighlin can read our local synthesis at www.kandle.ie and watch an iCatholic Special on it at www.iCatholic.ie If you didn't have an opportunity to take part in this listening please be assured that this is just a first step. There will be other opportunities for bringing your voice and experience to our conversations about being Church together.
