Search, and you will find

When it comes to prayer, it is often a question of finding what works for you.

In recent times, many people have found prayer apps - such as 'Pray as You Go' - extremely helpful, because they allow for guided prayer at different moments of the day, even if you are on a bus or walking to work. They encourage us to make our whole day into a prayer, and they can help us to connect with prayer even when we don't feel like praying or can't pray.

We've all been there, so we can sympathise with the disciples' question to Jesus in today's gospel, 'Lord, teach us to pray'. It may surprise us to hear that Jesus gives them a very direct response - actual words in a formula to be recited. In Jesus' time there were many rabbies - teachers - who had certain prayers they expected their followers to say, almost as a mark of identity for their group. The Lord's Prayer is the prayer of the Jesus community, and it's our prayer too.

It is perhaps the first prayer we learn as children and, in a moment of crisis, it is often the go-to prayer when all other words fail us.

Thought for the Week

Prayer brings us back to solid ground... bends our attention away from ourselves back toward God, and then to those who have been entrusted to our love and practical care: family, friends, community, and especially those who lack the blessings we have been given so abundantly.

Prayer for the second World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly

I give thanks to you, Lord,
For the blessing of a long life
For, to those who take refuge in You,
Grant always to bear fruit.

Forgive, O Lord,
Resignation and disillusionment,
But forsake me not
When my strength declines.

Teach me to look with hope
To the future you give me,
To the mission you entrust to me
And to sing your praises without end.

Make me a tender craftsman
Of Your revolution,
To guard with love my grandchildren
And all the little ones who seek shelter in You.

Protect, O Lord, Pope Francis
And grant Thy Church
To deliver the world from loneliness.
Direct our steps in the way of peace.

Amen.
