Peace to this house!

In today's gospel, Jesus appoints seventy-two disciples to go ahead of him to the towns he intends to visit.

He recommends a specific greeting for them to use when entering a home, 'Peace to this house!'

The words set the tone for the visit, and we might compare it to the traditional Irish greeting,

'God bless all here!'

Jesus explains that, if a person of peace lives in the house,

'your peace will go and rest on him', and the disciples will find a generous welcome in return.

The peace that governs our home life extends to all, including strangers in need.

Go Deeper
Before we receive Eucharist, we pray for peace and unity in the community. Next time you enter a household,
silently say the words,
'Peace to this house!'
and include all who are gathered in the blessing.
Is there someone in your life with whom you are not at peace? How might you take steps to heal that relationship?
In prayer, send peace to this person or into that situation.

I will be away from the Parish for 5 months from July 1st to December 1st 2022 on sabbatical study time approved by Bishop Denis. I will be spending that time in a Jesuit Parish in Sydney Australia and also during some studies in Jerusalem. Bishop Denis has arranged that Fr. Laurentin and Fr. Octavian two Romanian Priests will provide cover and support to Fr. Denis when I am away.
Fr. John in Cooleragh, Fr. George and Fr. Adrieno in Kilcock will also be supporting the Parish when I am away.
I will be back to the Parish for Dec. 1st.
Best Wishes, Fr. Paul O'Boyle
