What does the Lord require of you but to do justice and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God?

Sunday 10.30am

In this prayer, Micah turns to God out of fear more than love.
He sees God as one who must be pleased or he will send disaster your way.
He wants a road map, clearly outlining what God needs from him to keep him safe.

God speaks to the heart rather than the mind and gives a clear message that remains central to our call to be better people.
It is easy to remember these lines, but they bring a challenge that if accepted brings a deep sense of peace.

Steer the ship of my life, good Lord, to your quiet harbour, where I can be safe from the storms of sin and conflict. Show me the course I should take. Renew in me the gift of discernment, so that I can always see the right direction in which I should go. And give me the strength and the courage to choose the right course, even when the sea is rough and the waves are high, knowing that through enduring hardship and danger we shall find comfort and peace. Amen.
