Breaking Bread

They are broken,
 bruised by the wounds of life,
 tainted by the miseries,
 wearied by the burdens of life.
 They are at the peripheries,
 and away from all the colors of life.
 Their eyes are filled with anxieties,
 and their skin burned with harsh realities.
 But they find comfort in him.
 Their eyes are slowly filled
 with new hope and courage.
 In him they see their liberation.
 He is one among them,
 broken and wounded like them.
 He is the wounded healer,
 he breaks the bread of life with them.
 He is the bread of eternal life and freedom.
