Easter Blessing

I see his blood upon the rose

I see his blood upon the rose
and in the stars the glory of his eyes,
His body gleams amid eternal snows.

His tears fall from the skies,
I see his face in every flower. The thunder and the singing of the birds.
Are but his voice - and carved by his power. Rocks are his written words all pathways by his feet are worn,

His strong heart stirs
the ever-beating sun.

His crown of thorns is twined with every thorn,

His cross is every tree.
(Joseph Mary Plunkett)

The tides obey your voice, and the seasons do your will. You care for every living creature in the sea, the air and on the land. I will be not fearful of the past, nor anxious for tomorrow.

My name is forever branded on the palm of your hand.

For everything there is a season;
A time for searching, a time for calm and peace.
A time for listening, a time to speak the truth.
A time for laughter, a time for tears and pain.
A time to love, a time to mend. A time to heal,
a time to throw away. A time for meeting,
a time to say goodbye.

May the road rise to meet you,
may the wind be at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face.
May the rain fall softly on your fields,
And may you keep safe in the gentle, loving arms of God.
