Dear Lord help me,

I seem to have lost my grip on life.

I don't know what to do.

Nothing lifts my spirit these days

Lord, where is it all going to end?

It feels as if even You have forgotten me,

Give me the courage to keep on trying.

Please stay close to me and let Your Light shine in this darkness.

Show me what to do,

who to talk to, where to turn.

You are all I've got right now.

Amen.

24 Hour Peace Vigil

The Need for Peace Has Never Been Greater

Please Join Us for and Share This Important Event.

Hope for a World Without Conflict

12 Noon, July 19 – 12 Noon, July 20
Suaimhneas Centre, Main Street, Clane

In a world that feels increasingly heavy with suffering, it can be hard to know how to respond. When words fail and answers feel far away — stillness can speak.

This vigil is a simple act of peace.

For 24 hours, we are creating a quiet space

to sit together in silence, in compassion, and in hope. A space to honour all who are affected by violence, loss, and displacement — wherever they may be.

There is no agenda. No speeches.
No expectations. Just an invitation to pause.
To be present. To hope for peace.

All are welcome — join for a minute or more.

Best Wishes

Every good wish and God's Blessing go to Janet Morgan, principal of Hewetson National School, who is retiring after many years of dedicated service.

Janet has always been a wonderful support to the Parish and we all wish her every good health and happiness in the future.

Ad Multos Annos Janet!

The Holy Supper is kept, indeed,
In whatso we share with another's need;

Not what we give, but what we share
For the gift without the giver is bare.

(James Russell Lowell)

Many thanks to all who helped prepare last Sunday's refreshments after Mass in Clane. The ice-creams went down a treat.

The annual church gate collection for Spina Bifida Hydrocephalus Ireland,
Kildare Branch, will take place in Clane on the weekend of 5th/6th of July
