World Day of Migrants and Refugees

The parable of Lazarus

There is a tragedy running through the parable and the tragedy is this: after death he begins to experience a change of heart. He wants to warn his nearest and dearest so that they can avoid his fate, but it is too late. His request is denied because the Law and the Prophets have already made clear what God requires. God wants us to love him and love our fellow human beings.

After death there is no opportunity for repentance and conversion because today is the day of salvation, today is the time of repentance, today is the day to believe that Jesus is the Resurrection, the Way the Truth and the Life.

Father, by your grace may I always have a warm and generous heart towards the poor and needy.

By your grace help me to respond while there is still time to the gift of revelation and the mystery of faith revealed in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Canticle of Simeon

At last, all powerful Master, you give leave to your servant
to go in peace,
according to your promise.

For my eyes have seen your salvation which you have prepared for all nations, the light to enlighten the Gentiles and give glory to Israel, your people.
Amen.

Season of Creation 1st September – 4th October Peace with Creation

"Future generations will never forgive us if we miss the opportunity to protect our common home. We have inherited a garden;
we must not leave a desert for our children."

Joint statement from Pope Francis, the Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew and Archbishop Justin Welby of Canterbury.
This year's Season of Creation has as its theme "Peace with Creation", inspired by the passage from Isaiah 32:14-18; "My people will abide in a peaceful habitation, in secure dwellings, and in quiet resting places." In a world of challenges and division, marked by war and climate change,
how can we as people of faith create and work towards peace with creation? Every one of us has a part of play. For this year's resources
