How does Missio Ireland work?

- Missio Ireland is the Irish branch of the Pontifical Mission Societies, which is the Holy Father's official charity for overseas mission
- All projects are submitted to Pontifical Mission Societies Rome, where they are vetted.
- All Mission Sunday collections in Ireland come to Missio Ireland
- All funds collected are audited
- Missio Ireland makes known to Rome how much we have available for projects in a given year
- Missio Ireland then receives projects from PMS Rome that match the amount available
- Money is sent directly from Ireland to the Nuncio in the recipient country, and he forwards the money to the bishop of the relevant dioceses and he sends them to the projects recipients.

Living God, you know how heavy my heart is,
and how tight my chest.

I can't find a way out. Help me, my God!

I know you care for me and love me,
and that you allow each trial I face.

I know you turn all things to good for me.

But help me -

do not let this fear overwhelm me.

I entrust this day to you, and all my life.

Guide me where you will

and how you know is best for me.

For whether I live or die,

I am with you, and you are with me, my God.

Amen
