Morning Prayer

Lord Jesus, as I begin this new day,
 I seek your strength to face its challenges. Guide my decisions, bless my efforts and keep me steadfast in faith. When I feel weak, remind me that your power is made perfect in my weakness. Lead me on the right path and help me to be a vessel of your love to others.
 Amen.

Evening Prayer

Lord, I thank you for the blessings of this day and for your loving care.
 As I rest tonight, I ask for your peace to surround me and my loved ones. Help us to trust in your protection and wake renewed, ready to serve you. As I prepare for sleep, relieve the worries of my heart. Grant me peace throughout the night and may you bring me safely to a new day. In Jesus' name.
 Amen.

Thought for the Week
True hope isn't evasion, it is decision.

A welcome to our First Communion
Children and their Families to Mass
this weekend.

About hope

Christian hope is like an anchor that grounds our hearts in the promise of the Lord Jesus. Christian hope isn't escape but a courageous choice to love and give, even in suffering.
True hope isn't evasion; it's decision.

Many thanks to all those who contributed so generously to the recent Christmas Collection for the Priests of the Parish.

Calling in time of need

Living God,
you know how heavy my hearts,
and how tight my chest.
I can't find a way out.
Help me, my God!
I know you care for me and love me,
and that you allow each trial I face.
I know you turn all things to good for me.
But help me -
do not let this fear overwhelm me.
I entrust this day to you, and all my life.
Guide me where you will
and how you know is best for me.
For whether I live or die,
I am with you, and you are with me,
my God. Amen.

"What does God want from the Church in Ireland at this time?"

At the heart of Baptised and Sent is the conviction that baptism is the foundation of Christian dignity, unity, and mission.
Through baptism, every person – lay and ordained, young and old – is called to discipleship and to share responsibility for the life and mission of the Church.
From this shared calling flow the seven priorities that emerged from voices across the country.

The Seven Priorities:

- 1. Belonging
- 2. Co-responsibility and Lay Ministry
- 3. Family
- 4. Formation and Catechesis
- 5. Healing
- 6. Women
- 7. Youth

Catholic Schools Week 2026

18th to the 24th January 2026
Catholic Schools – Normal Lives, Called to Holiness

"Holiness does not mean performing extraordinary things, but doing ordinary things with love and faith."
— Pope Francis on Blessed Carlo Acutis

Introduction

Catholic Schools Week 2026 celebrates the extraordinary call to holiness in the midst of ordinary life. Inspired by Pope Francis's reflection on Blessed Carlo Acutis—soon to be canonised as the first millennial saint—this year's theme invites pupils, teachers, families, and parishes to explore the call to holiness as something both universal and accessible. Holiness is not for a few, but for all; not reserved for religious professionals or mystics, but for every student, teacher, parent, (and grandparent!) living each day in friendship with Jesus Christ.

Catholic schools exist to form individuals who know that their lives have a purpose and a calling. This year's theme, "Normal Lives, Called to Holiness," resonates with the central conviction that education is a path not only to knowledge and maturity
but to sainthood.
