Praying with the Angels and Saints

These agents of God are found throughout scripture. God uses them as messengers to deliver guidance, warning and comfort.
"Now get yourselves ready. I'm sending my Angel ahead of you", comments the book of Exodus 23:20, "to guard you in your travels, to lead you to the place that I've prepared. Pay close attention to him".

Angels sometimes appear as ordinary people, as in the three men who appeared to Abraham and Sarah in their desert tent. They realised they were angels only when they had left (Gen 18). This can happen for us as the poet Mary Oliver points out: "you might see an angel anytime and anywhere".

They also appear in visions, for example, the angel who spoke to Joseph in a dream (Matthew 1:20). We pray to the angels for guidance, comfort and protection.

To our Guardian Angel
Angel of God, my guardian dear,
To whom God's love commits me here,
Ever this day (or night) be at my side,
to light, to guard, to rule and guide.
Amen.

We thank you, Lord, for the gift of life.
Every human life is your gift to the world.
Each person is unique, with a task you have entrusted to them alone. Help us always to promote the basic rights of all, and to recognise that we are all parts of one body, dependent on one another, and called to share a common life.
Amen.
